VOLUME 10, ISSUE JULY 2015

Renewing our families, our communities, and our world by bringing faith and life together in Christ.

LET THE REDEEMED OF THE LORD SAY SO!

BY CARTER SANGER

What has God done for you? Do you know? Can you put it into words?

Beginning in September we will look at Psalm 107, which is an invitation to tell others what God has done for you.

Oh give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
for his steadfast love endures forever!
Let the redeemed of the LORD say so,
whom he has redeemed from trouble. (Psalm 107:1-2)

Everyone who knows the Lord has a story to tell of God's saving work in his/her life. And everyone is called by the Lord to share that story. Be in prayer that God would open your eyes to your story and how you might share that story with the congregation. For ideas, read Psalm 107, which walks through a variety of ways that God works in the lives of people. If you're willing to share, please let me know, and we'll work together on a time in September or October.

In Christ,

LADIES' FELLOWSHIP EVENTS PLANNED FOR THIS SUMMER

The first of three fellowship events planned for Cornerstone ladies and their friends was held on Friday evening, June 19. It was a fun evening, with a good turn-out and requests for "more".

Book Chat

The next evening will be on Friday, July 17, 7:00-9:00 p.m., in the Fellowship Hall. This will be our Book Chat evening, with a discussion of Angela Hunt's book, The Debt. Copies are available for order from Amazon. If you haven't read the book ahead, that's okay—just come for the discussion, you may want to read it afterwards. From "Publisher's Weekly": …Hunt knows how to keep the story moving…Hunt's story is a wake-up call that should jolt many Christian women out of complacency.

EPC Faith Focus

Our third event will be Friday evening, August 14. It will feature fellowship and a little shopping. We will have samples of handmade items produced by disabled women in Sierra Leone, for those interested in ordering something. All proceeds go to support them through the Women of Hope organization, ministering to these disabled women and helping combat the Ebola outbreak in Sierra Leone. This is the current Faith Focus Project sponsored by EPC women.

Watch for more about Women of Hope between now and then, or visit their website: WomenofHopeInternational.org. You could also get a sneak peek at their products at Etsy.com. Just type WomenofHopeIntl in the search field.

Child care is available for all the fellowship events. If you want to reserve a spot for your child, email Carol at info@cornerstonekaty.org.

SPECIAL POINTS OF INTEREST:

- The Officer Nominating Committee is hard at work. Talk to John Barrett, Gene Cover, Beverly Tucker, or Scott Wilkins if you have a suggestion.
- Have you completed your Spiritual Gifts Survey? (See #2 on page 9.)
- Looking for a book for personal or small group study? Be sure to check the copier room in the Education Building, as well as the library in the Sanctuary foyer.
- God is good. Let us give thanks for his provision.

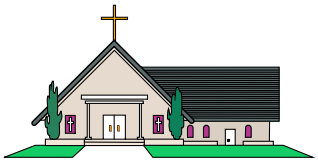
SESSION HIGHLIGHTS

BY GENE COVER



Our officers are looking at the rates other organizations pay to use our buildings, to insure that they are "up to date".

"GOD MADE US TO FUNCTION TOGETHER WHERE KINGDOM GROWTH IS BETTER THAN PERSONAL OR EVEN CHURCH GROWTH."

- Carter gave a summary of Chapter 5 of Michael Horton's book we have been reading: Ordinary. This chapter's subject was Ambition: How a vice became a virtue. Ambition is a trait that needs to be harnessed; there is a tension between self and community. Putting self first to promote ourselves works against the life of the body. God made us to function together where Kingdom growth is better than personal or even church growth.
- Finances have been a concern since the beginning of the year, where we have had four of the first five months of 2015 with giving significantly below average. May saw an improvement in our giving. Thank you Lord!

  Our deficit between giving and expenses for three months has consumed a lot of the officers' energy, and we are glad for some relief from that. The Deacons and Session will continue to monitor this situation closely, but feel that no changes in spending habits are warranted at this time.

  It is worthwhile to note that the Building Fund needs for the patio and playground project are fully met, and there is no need for further donations. Please continue to pray for wisdom for your pastors, staff and officers.
- Another outcome of our conversation about our finances is that we will be taking a hard look at the cost of having others use our facilities, including wear and tear, and we will be looking at how our rates compare for similar uses. We do believe that God wants his building used for His purposes, but that we need to be wise stewards of His blessings, as in all things.
- We are installing four security cameras and they will be hooked up to a DVR.
- We are aware of many prayer needs in our midst. Please continue to pray for our friends and neighbors.

NATHAN COTTON RECEIVES HIS ORDINATION

A Commission of Ruling Elders and Teaching Elders (pastors) represented the Presbytery of the Gulf South in ordaining Nathan Cotton on Sunday evening, May 31.

Along with his ordination, Nathan received a call from Cornerstone's Session and a "promotion" from Youth Director to Assistant Pastor. We are blessed to have Nathan and Alisa and their girls as part of our church family!

With Nathan are members of the Commission: Carter Sanger, Gene Cover, Jonathan Tucker, Richard Harris, Buck Oliphant, and Ed Wedin.

TIM KEESEE AND FRONTLINE MISSIONS UPDATES: SPRING 2015

BY KATHY JORGENSEN

EPISODE 8: "NO REGRETS, NO RETREAT"
Many of you remember Dr. Tim Keesee, the inspirational key note speaker from our Mission Conference last year. He is Director of Frontline Missions, an organization that supports Biblical ministries in restricted-access countries. He is also the producer of the successful video series Dispatches From the Front, which several Cornerstone small groups have studied.

Dr Keesee recently returned from a scouting trip to the Holy Land, via Dubai and Bahrain. A future episode will cover this region. The 8th episode of Dispatches from the Front: "No Regrets, No Retreat" is complete and will be added to the DVD series in the church's library for you to borrow. This episode goes to China for an inside look at the Gospel's advance there.

$39 SUMMER CAMPS
Frontline Missions is seeking assistance to send young Muslim children to Christian camps in Uzbekistan, Crimea or Ukraine. One of these camps was highlighted in episode 2 of the Dispatches video series. The low cost of $39 will support one child and provide them the opportunity of hearing the Gospel for the first time. Christians living in these regions are introducing Muslim children to the Jesus of the Bible as their savior, not an oppressor. Please consider sending one or more to camp. Donations are tax-deductible and can be arranged directly through Frontline Missions.

ISAIAH SPEAKS CROATIAN!
Last year Frontline, Missions funded the translation and publication of the first-ever commentary on the book of Isaiah in the Croatian language. This book has just been published. Gospel partners there are thrilled about the long-range impact that this work will have in the pulpits and personal Bible study of believers in this part of the former Yugoslavia.

NEXTS IN AFRICA
Five NEXT team members are leading a summer ministry in North Africa and the Horn of Africa. Pray for their needs and uncertainties and the Gospel opportunities ahead.

NEXT is the short-term, cross-cultural missions program of Frontline Missions International. These field opportunities range from two months to two years and are designed to provide a realistic "next step" for those exploring long-term Gospel ministry in restricted-access countries. Experienced field personnel mentor and guide participants to a greater self-awareness of strengths and weaknesses.

NEXT training believes immersion in practical missionary experiences is important to replace romanticism with the realism involved in working in an environment often hostile to the Gospel. NEXT nurtures Gospel-centered humility, a deep respect for indigenous brothers and sisters, and encourages bold, Spirit-enabled audacity in the Kingdom's advance.

For more information about the NEXT program, visit Frontline Missions website at www.frontlinemissions.info and click on FX.

The new DVD from Tim Keesee is now available in the Cornerstone library.

"NEXT TRAINING BELIEVES IMMERSION IN PRACTICAL MISSIONARY EXPERIENCES IS IMPORTANT TO REPLACE ROMANTICISM WITH THE REALISM INVOLVED IN WORKING IN AN ENVIRONMENT OFTEN HOSTILE TO THE GOSPEL."

Congratulations to our high school graduates, Dunning Sanger and Wesley Riddell! We will miss them as they go off to college in the fall, but pray for God to bless them as they enter the next stage in their lives.

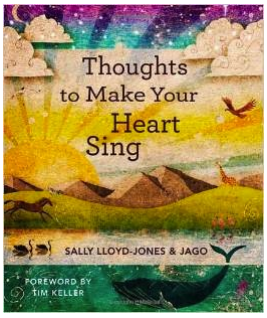
NEW TO THE CHILDREN'S LIBRARY

BY CAROL KUTZER

I just added this book to our Children's Library. I've been reviewing it bit by bit; but I must say if you enjoy the Jesus Storybook Bible you will really enjoy this book. Here is the Amazon write up:

From Sally Lloyd-Jones and Jago, the creators of the best-selling Jesus Storybook Bible, comes this gorgeous and innovative collection of 101 simple -yet- profound thoughts on faith. Thoughts to Make Your Heart Sing shares profound spiritual truths from the Bible told in a conversational tone—drawing insights from creation, history, science, the writings of great thinkers and preachers and writers, and more—to turn the reader's eyes toward the God who loves them with a Never Stopping, Never Giving Up, Unbreaking, Always and Forever Love.

Perfect for family devotions, bedtime, story time, or even as a companion to The Jesus Storybook Bible, this accessible yet theologically rich book reveals biblical truth in word and image—all working together and designed to do one thing: to make the reader's heart sing.



This new addition to the children's library will be a good choice for family devotions or story time.

LET'S CONTINUE TO SERVE THE ARC OF KATY THIS SUMMER

BY CAROL KUTZER

There are several ways you can help us be a blessing to the Arc campers while they are on campus this summer. If you would like to donate supplies (food, crafts, etc.) please visit this website: https://www.volunteersignup.org/ARX4E or you may donate money by dropping a check made out to Cornerstone EPC (memo: Arc of Katy) in the offering plate.

We will need volunteers on the following dates. Contact Linda Cover, Kim Elgie, May Gourlay, Carol Kutzer, Joanne Taylor, Beverly Tucker or Lee Williams if you are interested.

Serve Lunch/Crafts/ Sports – July 1 and 22
The first Wednesday of each of Arc's summer sessions will be "Cornerstone Day". We will start the day with Sports time lead by May Gourlay, Nathan Cotton and the youth kids. This will be followed by Community Crafts at 10:00 a.m. Then Linda Cover and her lunch team will serve the campers and volunteers lunch! Community Crafts this summer will include:

1) book bags for Kidz Club;
2) cat and doggie toys for the animals at CAPS; and
3) tie-dyed pillow cases for the patients at Katy Texas Children's Hospital.

We also plan to schedule field trips for the Arc campers to deliver their creations. Fun!!!

Carnival – July 28
Joanne Taylor is coordinating a day of fun and activities for the Arc campers. Our theme will be State Fairs. We will need lots of volunteers for this event. This would be a great opportunities for families as children are able to volunteer. We will definitely need someone to teach the kids a song to sing on Arc Sunday.

ARC Sunday – August 2
We will invite all the ARC campers and their families to join us for worship. Following the service there will be a 2:42 Lunch where we will have the opportunity to meet and greet the Arc families and fellowship with them over a good meal. Everyone should wear Arc blue!

Open House – probably August 13 - Each year, the Arc hosts an Open House to show off all the campers learned throughout the summer. Everyone is invited. Cornerstone volunteers will coordinate and serve a reception following the Open House. Beverly Tucker is the coordinator for this event. Let her know if you have a special treat you would like to provide.

"THE FIRST WEDNESDAY OF EACH OF ARC'S SUMMER SESSIONS WILL BE 'CORNERSTONE DAY'."

Campers decorated book bags for Kidz Club during the June 10 Arc Community Craft.

LEARNING TO FOLLOW JESUS—W.E.L.L. TEAM UPDATE

BY SCOTT WILKINS

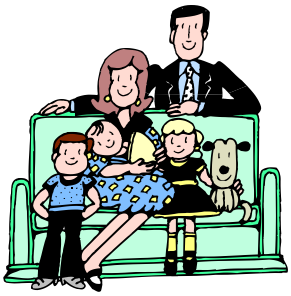
"To disciple our church family through Biblical teaching, modeling, and training to bring faith and life together in Christ."

"OUR CALLING AS CHRISTIANS IS TO SEE TO THE BUILDING OF GOD'S KINGDOM. WHAT ARE YOU DOING TO FULFILL THAT CALLING?"

The Learning to Follow Jesus team is focused on building and maintaining healthy teaching and learning ministries to help Cornerstone members grow in learning to follow our Lord Jesus Christ. Cornerstone has established formal ministry areas for this purpose—such as Adult Sunday School—as well as less formal ongoing activities led by various individuals in the congregation—such as Pastor Carter's weekday men's book study.

The formal LTFJ ministry teams are each led by a team leader who is accountable for the overall delivery of their ministry areas. Volunteers serving in their teams include primarily teachers and mentors who desire to help others grow in their walk with Jesus. These leaders and their teams evaluate their activities on an ongoing basis to ensure they are effectively supporting the evolving needs of God's church at Cornerstone.

Below is a summary from each of the team leaders of recent activity and their specific plans for the future.



Family Sunday School is for all ages—to help our covenant families grow together.

Adult Sunday School (Jonathan Tucker)
This spring, Adult Sunday School completed a study of the Gospel of (Jesus according to) John led by Allen White. Allen taught on familiar as well as unique themes in the Gospel of John and shared numerous practical tips on doing Bible study and interpreting Scripture. There are no scheduled Adult Sunday School classes for the summer. In the fall, a study on the Apostle's Creed will be led by Jonathan Tucker.

Family Sunday School (Carol Kutzer)
Family Sunday School (CSCK -Cornerstone School of Covenant & Kingdom) underwent many changes this past school year. We simplified as much as possible and continued to pour into our covenant families the Scriptures and the First Catechism Chant.

One of the biggest changes we made was deviating from the CSCK Catechism curriculum for the first semester. The adults went through the Biblical Parenting DVD series and the children benefitted from the Treasure Hunt curriculum – both focusing on family. This was well received by everyone, and we are considering doing another family based curriculum for the first semester for next school year.

The Family Sunday School has been suspended for the summer; however, the leadership team will meet periodically to review curriculum and make adjustments to the age/grade levels as our needs change. We will also be addressing our need for Sunday school teachers.

Our calling as Christians is to see to the building of God's Kingdom. What are you doing to fulfill that calling? I think you would be greatly blessed by working with our covenant families…pouring into the young kids and sharing your love for Jesus.

Women's Bible Study (Liz Wilkins)
Women's Bible study has had a good year. We started the year in September with a study in Ephesians using a study guide by Thabiti Anyabwile: Ephesians - God's big plan for Christ's new people. In January we studied a book called Extravagant Grace by Barbara Duguid. Both studies were well attended and generated lots of good discussion. In the past year we have had wonderful fellowship and new women stepping up in leadership. In the summer we typically do a less intense study. This summer the Women's study is "The Nitty Gritty - a study on the EPC Essentials". The ladies have wonderful fellowship with one another, and the children enjoy each other. It is such a blessing to see the women of various ages enjoying each other's company and encouraging one another in daily life. I am looking forward to the completion of the new pavilion and playground area. It will be a safe and comfortable place for the women to visit while the children play. In our typical fashion we will study a book of the Bible in the fall that is yet to be decided. It has been such a blessing to me to grow in the Lord along side of these women. Proverbs 27:17 says, "As iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another."

Heart to Heart (Linda Cover)

The six-month Heart-to-Heart session concluded with a Pot-luck Celebration Dinner on Thursday, April 30. There were eight mentoring pairs this time, with a Prayer Warrior assigned to each. It is always a blessing to see new friendships formed during this time and new ladies taking part.

Thanks to Lynn Weatherly, who has been serving as our Prayer Warrior Coordinator! Lynn is stepping down, so we will be looking for someone to take her place soon. Other members of the H2H team are Linda Cover, Rhonda Sanger, Evelyn Saugier, and Lauren Torregano.

Heart-to-Heart will resume again in the fall, so be watching for an announcement of the next kickoff date.

Counseling Training (Sam Downing)

Since October of 2013 Jeff Magee, Alisa Cotton, Evelyn Saugier, and I have been going through counseling training here at Cornerstone. We have read and studied 7 books by Larry Crabb on Sunday mornings during the Sunday School hour, and we have been working on counseling practice in three hour practicums once a month (twice a month during the summer). The focus has been on studying counseling from a Biblical perspective and developing basic counseling skills. All of the students have worked hard and have made great progress. They have sacrificed a lot and persevered wonderfully to be able to serve Cornerstone and the surrounding community in the area of Christian counseling. I am proud of them all.

> PROVERBS 27:17 SAYS, "AS IRON SHARPENS IRON, SO ONE MAN SHARPENS ANOTHER."

We will focus our academic attention this summer on gaining an overall view of the counseling process as a whole, from beginning to the end. In the fall, we will concentrate on specific counseling problems like depression, marriage and family counseling, anger issues, and other common counseling issues. We will once again have our practicums twice a month during the summer.

We will need your help in the fall. I am requiring the students to secure a pretend client with a pretend issue to counsel for 10 one hour sessions. We will need three or four volunteers (not family members of the students) for this to be a success. So someone may approach you with this strange request in the near future. Please give their request prayerful consideration. I will be meeting with the pretend clients to help them present their pretend issues. If you would like to volunteer to be a pretend client please contact me (Sam Downing) at thedowningfamily@gmail.com.

These plans are just the beginning. Once everyone is trained, we will be helping anyone here at Cornerstone who needs to work through a difficulty. There are Marriage and Family Conference plans for the future, setting up a counseling room here at Cornerstone, coordinating with other churches in our areas with counseling ministries, offering our help to the community around us and much more.

Most of all, please pray for us as we struggle to submit ourselves to the Lord in our training and that our plans will be His plans.

Sam Downing leads a dedicated group who are studying and practicing to improve their counseling skills.

Thanks to Boy Scout Pack 393 for their gift to our playground fund! Along with the check, we received the following note:

Dear Cornerstone Presbyterian Members & Staff,

Pack 393 would like to express our sincere gratitude for your contribution to our homeschool community. By opening your doors to our community you are providing a location where we can raise up our boys in service to the Lord and their community. This pack and your church are enriching lives of families! Thanks you for all that you do to support us.

Donna Randall & Pack 393

SLOW AND STEADY IS THE KEYNOTE ON PATIO CONTRUCTION

Progress on the new patio has been slowed considerably by the rainy weather in May and early June. However, the fireplace has been installed, bricks on the Fellowship Hall removed and a new double door installed, and the storage closet has a door.

The hope-for playground dedication will not take place on July 4, but we will certainly celebrate—as will those parents whose children are having to play indoors during the construction—as soon as the new equipment is in place. Stay tuned!

Remaining concrete will be poured for the patio as soon as it is dry enough.

Double doors will give entrance to the Fellowship Hall from the playground. A welcome addition!

10 WAYS TO DETERMINE GOD'S CALLING IN YOUR LIFE

In Nathan's sermon on Fathers' Day, he mentioned John Piper's 10 ways to determine God's calling. In case you didn't get all those, here is an excerpt from Piper's article:

God's calling to missions is not authoritative the way the Scriptures are. Your calling is never beyond question. Nevertheless our calling can be profoundly and durably sure in our own heart….How does God waken such a calling? I will suggest ten means that he uses. Various combinations of these are the fuel God uses to drive the engine of his calling in your life.

1. Above all, know your Bible and saturate your mind with it.
The Bible shapes our minds for mission durability (Psalm 1:1-3), and makes us burn for Christ (Luke 24:32).

2. Know your gifts and know yourself.
Every Christian has gifts (1 Peter 4:10-11). Knowing them shapes your convictions about your calling. And knowing yourself (as Paul exemplifies in Romans 7:15-24) deepens your sense of fitness for various ministries.

3. Ponder the needs of the world.
The Christian heart of love is drawn by perceived needs, whether near or far. Therefore God uses what we know to awaken the measure of our desire that pushes us over the edge of commitment (Matthew 9:36-38).

4. Read missionary biography and missionary frontline stories.
Clearly the Bible treats heroes of the faith as divinely appointed inspirations for the awakening of vision and ministry (Hebrews 13:7). "Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us" (Hebrews 12:1).

5. Inquire of your soul, "Where are you burdened for others?"
God sends and seeks the burden for lost people. Jesus carried such a burden: "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem! . . . How often would I have gathered your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings" (Luke 13:33-34). This burden was essential to his calling. What is your burden?

6. Know your circumstances.
Parents, health, houses, lands, children, age, etc. All of them matter in our calling, but none of them is decisive. They can all be overridden. "Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands, for my sake and for the gospel, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and in the age to come eternal life" (Mark 10:29-30).

7. Pray for God to throw you where you can be best used for his glory.
I say "throw" because in Matthew 9:38 that is the literal meaning: "Pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to throw out laborers into his harvest." The point is pray! Ask God to use you to the fullest for his glory. "If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given him" (James 1:5).

8. Do not neglect passionate, Christ-exalting, corporate worship.
The most important missionary calling that ever happened took place in corporate worship: "While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, 'Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them'" (Acts 13:2).

9. Listen humbly to the spiritual people in your life.
They not only confirm your gifts. They are the instruments of God to awaken in you possibilities and joys of missionary service that you never dreamed (2 Timothy 1:5-7).

10. Cultivate absolute surrender of all you are and have to Christ.
This is the person that God leads to the greatest fruitfulness of life. Woe to the person who tries to be a half-Christian and never says from the heart: "I renounce everything for you, Lord Jesus. I am willing to go anywhere and do anything at any cost, if you will go with me and be my everlasting joy."
