Praise

Call to Worship – adapted from Psalm 27:1-4

Leader: The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

People: Though an army encamp against me, my heart shall not fear; though war arise against me, yet I will be confident.

Leader: One thing have I asked of the Lord, that will I seek after:

People: that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the Lord and to inquire in his temple.

Confessing our Faith — Westminster Confession of Faith, Ch. 15, ¶1-4

Leader: Repentance which leads to life is the blessed product of the gospel working in believers' lives. Along with the doctrine of faith in Christ, it is a doctrine to be preached by every minister of the gospel.

People: In this repentance the sinner is able to see his sins as God sees them, as filthy and hateful, and as involving great danger to the sinner, because they are completely contrary to the holy nature and righteous law of God.

Leader: Understanding that God in Christ is merciful to those who repent, the sinner suffers deep sorrow for and hates his sins, and so he determines to turn away from all of them.

People: And turning to God, he tries to walk with him according to all his commandments.

Leader: Although repentance is not any satisfaction for sin and does not cause the forgiveness of sins (since forgiveness is an act of God's voluntary grace in Christ), yet it is necessary to all sinners, and no one may expect to be forgiven without it.

People: Just as there is no sin so small that it does not deserve damnation, so there is no sin so great that it can bring damnation upon those who truly repent.

Leader: Turn not your servant away in anger, O you who have been my help.
